Julian Tisi says THANK YOU

Julian Tisi says "Thank you," to all the thousands of people who voted for him in the General Election recently.

Julian said, "Across Britain more people than ever voted Liberal Democrat - nearly seven million people."

Now many of the policies those people voted for will be put into practice through the coalition. This includes action for fairer taxes, cleaning up politics and getting the economy moving again.

"Labour has failed Britain for too long and even after the election, refused to talk seriously about working with the Lib Dems."

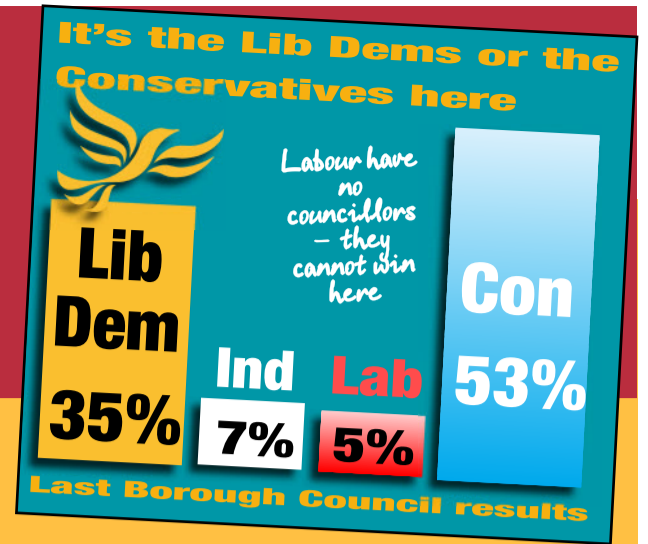

At the election, the people chose to give no party an overall majority. People wanted politicians to put aside their differences and work together to sort out the nation's problems.

Through collaboration many of the desired Lib Dem policies will now deliver real change for Britain. Nationally, NHS funding is guaranteed, schools will get more funding and most pensioners will get a better deal.

Britain needs change - the Lib Dems will deliver this.

Julian Tisi says, "Thank you."

Four steps to a Better Borough

Cleaning up the Neighbourhood

The condition of roads and pavements has deteriorated and anti-social behaviour & car crime are a serious problem. Liberal Democrats are fighting to reverse this.

Protecting the Vulnerable

Liberal Democrats are committed to stopping Council Conservatives cutting services to the vulnerable and using stealth taxes to charge them more for essential services.

Making the Borough Green

Liberal Democrats are determined to turn the Borough into a green and sustainable Borough where green issues are given a priority.

Providing Value for Money

Local Lib Dems are fighting hard against Council Conservative stealth taxes that have gone up by £18 million a year.

Fairer taxes action

Nearly a million low paid workers will no longer pay income tax thanks to the Lib Dems in Government.

Raising personal allowances by £1000 to £7475 a year will also cut £170 off the average tax bill.

Nick Clegg said, "Labour's huge debt means this is the toughest budget in years.

"This budget takes vital steps to putting our nation's finances back in order and delivering on our promise for fairer taxes made in the election."

Nick Clegg put fairer taxes at the heart of the election campaign. Now those promises are being kept.

The emergency budget at a glance.....

- Action to put the nation's finances back in order - after years of Labour waste and incompetence
- Nearly 1 million low earners taken out of tax
- £2 billion extra child tax credit to tackle poverty
- Help for pensioners - earnings' link restored
- Top earners to pay 10% more in Capital Gains Tax
- A new tax on banks

Castle Lib Dems Local Action

Introducing George Fussey

After years of service as a local campaigner, former Councillor Richard Pratt is happy to support George Fussey as he steps up to represent the local Lib-Dem campaign.

George has lived and worked in our area for 25 years and his two children have grown up here and attended local schools. His wife, Heather, and son, James, both work in local schools so not surprisingly he also has a keen interest in education.

He's keen to do all he can to improve things both for Windsor and Eton residents and local businesses.

Street Light Cover up

Some of the streetlights around Windsor certainly look attractive, but the problem is that they don't always stay that way!

They attract hordes of insects and – inevitably – spiders and can become covered in mess. This can be really unsightly and the lighting levels can be badly affected.

“All that is needed is a regular cleaning programme,” said long-time local resident George Fussey.

Late night disturbance from clubbers

Many residents have a major concerns about the impact of the night-time economy on residential areas in Windsor.

George says, “I hear so often from residents about the disturbances caused by late-night parties as they leave the town centre clubs. We must hold these establishments accountable”.

Please share your experiences and suggestions on this topic with George.

LIB DEM RECESSION BUSTERS

Lib Dems bring Credit Union to Borough

Liberal Democrats have persuaded the Borough Council to help start a credit Union for the Borough - in partnership with the Reading Credit Union.

A Credit Union is a bank - available for secure savings and low-cost loans. It is targeted at low income households and is owned and run by its members.

It encourages savings especially for people on low incomes and keeps many people out of the hands of loan sharks through small low cost loans.

George Fussey said, “Helping local people through the recession is one of the main priorities for the Lib Dems locally.”
